Please read the following passage and then answer to the question below.

The Fukushima incident in 2011 is now one of the most crucial tragedies in the modern world so that people start to rethink about the nuclear power. However, at the point the 3.11 earthquake occurred in Japan people in Fukushima were not well informed because the Japanese government and media insisted that it was still safe, which was actually false. “The government may strictly censor the media at the discretion of the government although it is not as extreme as China”, say some people.

What do you think about censorship of the media in Japan? Do you agree with censorship? If yes, to what degree do you think censorship of the media is allowed? Write down your idea with clear supporting details in approximately 350-500 words. Your writing will be evaluated based on: (1) your idea, logic and the way you organize them and (2) your grammar.
