English, as the official international language, is getting more and more important to be a member of the international society today. Of course Bloomberg news is written in English over the world, but only Bloomberg Tokyo branch reports in Japanese. According to some businessmen, Tokyo is such a huge city that can be the business center in the world, but it cannot be so because people there have little ability to speak English. Do you think that Japanese people have little ability to speak English? If yes or not, why?

Explain your idea with 3 valid examples or supporting details in approximately 350-500 words. Your writing will be evaluated on the basis of: (1) your idea, logic, and the way you organize them and (2) your grammar.
